OUR STORY

Wynwood is an eclectic district in the urban core of Miami, Florida. It is home to art galleries, retail stores, antique shops, eclectic bars, artisanal eateries and one of the largest open-air street-art installations in the world.

Throughout the mid-to-late 1900s, Wynwood was an enclave for Caribbean immigrants and home to Miami's Garment District. Following a decade of economic exodus and depression, in the early 2000s, forward thinking developers and property owners rehabilitated neglected warehouses, shuttered factories, and other unused buildings, transforming them into the innovative businesses that are visible today.

However, it is street art that helped spark Wynwood's renaissance. Since the introduction of Second Saturday Art Walk and the arrival of Art Basel (2002), the influence and relevance of the arts community in Wynwood has become undeniable. Artists from around the world have sought inspiration in the area's windowless facades and used them as canvases to showcase their work, leading to the vivid murals that adorn the district.

Today, Wynwood is recognized globally as a premier destination for art, fashion, innovation and creative enterprise. It is one of the largest and most prominent creative communities in the United States, and where a new generation of creatives and entrepreneurs want to live, work, and play.

DID YOU KNOW?

Wynwood welcomes over 5 million visitors annually and is home to one of the highest concentrations of street art in the world—with more than 200 murals across the 50 city-block district. There is a bustling mix of local businesses that range from renowned galleries, technology start-ups, co-working facilities, microbreweries, artisanal bakeries, craft-coffee houses and distinguished restaurants.

WYNWOOD WALLS

The Wynwood Walls was established in 2009 by the legendary Tony Goldman with curator Jeffrey Deitch, as an outdoor museum of international street art.

Since the first year's program, the Wynwood Walls have featured world-renowned artists Kenny Scharf, Futura, Vhils, Swoon, and Shepard Fairey and spurred the creation of murals throughout the Wynwood Arts District. Today the Wynwood Walls is one of the most visited art venues in the world, attracting millions of people each year.
